3.	Kendrya Bhandar, Koti Hyderabad	Guntur & Kadapa,

The supplied agencies have been released payment to the extent to the supplied material after receiving the acknowledgments from the MEOs concerned.

Recording the districts which have not been supplied yet with the Book Shelves from the agencies concerned for Upper Primary Schools, the budget is released to School Management Committees as financial year was over along with specifications of the Book Shelves.

As per the Government of India the SMCs are at liberty to decide the supplies as per specifications communicated. In this connection certain agencies like M/s New Prem Agency, Mahabubnagar has come forward with a proposal for supply of Book Shelves to Upper Primary Schools with the same specifications at lowest rate of Rs. 8350/- only.

In this regard all the Project Officers of RVM in the state are directed to inform all the SMCs of all Primary and Upper Primary Schools that the complete liberty is given to School Management committee for taking decision regarding quality, price and agency for supply of Book Shelves and Book Rack both for Primary and Upper Primary Schools. They need not give the order to agencies suggested by this office earlier, funds are to be utilized in the best interest of school, going for a good quality reaches and all the procurement shall be made in transparent manner.

This has got the approval of State Project Director.
